

FORGE NEW HAVEN SELL B. & M. STOCK

—B. J. Rothwell

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MAN WARNS LEGISLATURE OF GRAVE MENACE IN MERGER.

Speaking for the foremost business organization of the New England States, with one thousand members, President Bernard J. Rothwell of the Boston Chamber of Commerce appeared before the Committee on Railroads at the State House today to report to the Legislature recommending that the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad "must dispose of the Boston & Maine stock which it now holds."

President Rothwell created some confusion in a statement given on Boston Hill, where it is said an important fact, when he said that the Chamber of Commerce "strongly" recommended that only those "legitimate" meetings of the chamber be held at the State House as the Legislature has been so far from the State House that it is impossible to hold meetings there.

He spoke today of the "determined opposition" of the Chamber to any merger of the Maine and the New Haven "which would be a disaster to the State."

last Wednesday, therefore, was neither a surprise nor a scandal. It represented a deliberate decision.

Mr. Rothwell attempted to reply, but was interrupted by a member of the committee, who said that the committee was not interested in the question of the merger of the New Haven and the Boston & Maine.

MULLINS CASE INQUEST

Sudden Move of Officials in Arlington Tragedy Involved in Mystery—Judge and Prosecuting Attorney in Secret Conference.

After seven witnesses had been examined to-day by District Attorney John A. Higgins in the inquiry into the death of Annie Mullins, which he is conducting before Judge Arthur P. Stone in the Third Sessions District Court of Cambridge, the hearing was suddenly adjourned shortly before 1 o'clock, and the District Attorney and the Judge were whisked away together in an auto.

"We are going to have a consultation; that is all I can tell you," said the District Attorney to a BOSTON AMERICAN reporter as he hurried into his auto coat, cap, gloves and goggles and hastened after Judge Stone across the street to where Mr. Higgins had left his auto.

Chief Thomas O. D. Urquhart, State Officer Hyman and Chief Inspector Hurley of Cambridge all came out of the courtroom, their heads close together and in an earnest conversation.

PROFESSOR FOR CONSULTATION. A profound air of mystery surrounded every person who hurried from the court room for lunch. Not a word was heard of the case until the District Attorney, who admitted that he and the judge were to hold a consultation.

NEW WOMAN IN CASE. Every effort to discover the identity of this tall man and of the two red-haired women resulted in failure. When Miss Lavelle came out of the courtroom she admitted her name, and then asked her first name. "I don't know anything about it," she said. "I don't know anything about it," she said. "I don't know anything about it," she said.

FEAR OF ALL SORTS OF PARLIEU

Soldiers Guard Young Monarch at the Reopening of Parliament To-day.

LISBON FULL OF TROOPS

LISBON, April 29.—Great concern exists here the reopening of Parliament to-day may be the occasion of a fresh outbreak, possibly an attempt on the life of the young King Manuel, who, in accordance with the constitution, must go to the Cortes to pronounce the opening.

The city is full of troops and the entire route from the Novas de Palace to the Parliament house is lined with soldiers. The King will travel in a closed carriage surrounded by soldiers. Some time ago a plot was discovered, and it is believed a sequel of the tragedy of last February, and a man named Palomares was arrested, the police failing to prevent evidence, he was taken to the Palace.

The Republicans, President and President-elect, have been very anxious to participate in an attempt on the Government shortly after Parliament opened, by reviving the scandal in connection with the royal divorce, obtained by the late King Carlos from the State Treasury. The young King, however, is not inclined to make any investigation by a commission for the assembly of the Cortes, and he repeatedly expressed his intention of making the investigation by a commission of his own.

It is now known that the secret of the divorce was kept by the King's request, that the amount credited to the King by the Treasury should be paid to the King's private account, and the sum paid to the King's private account was $100,000. The most sensational revelation, however, is that the King's private account was $100,000. The most sensational revelation, however, is that the King's private account was $100,000.

The Government organ, Mano, says that upon the first evidence that the Republic was trying to prevent the King from reviving the scandal in connection with the royal divorce, the Government will dissolve Parliament, suspend the constitution, and install a Republic.

FOUND CUTICURA INDISPENSABLE

For Her Children—Little Girls Suffered with Itching Eczema Which Simply Covered Back of Head—They Had a Tender Skin, Too.

ALL PROMPTLY CURED BY "WONDERFUL OINTMENT"

"Some years ago my three little girls had a very bad form of eczema. Itching eruptions formed on the back of the heads which were covered. Before I used Cuticura I used everything, but nothing helped. Then my mother told me to use Cuticura and the trouble disappeared. I am using Cuticura and the trouble has not returned."

Washed my children's heads with Cuticura Soap and then applied the Cuticura ointment. Cuticura did this for five or six times and I can say that they have been entirely cured. I have a healthy baby who is no plump that the folds of skin on her neck were. In my opinion, Cuticura is the best of all. I can say that I cannot find the equal. "I had an ulcer on my foot for a year or more and it was very painful as it was a running sore. I had a doctor, but his treatment did not help it. About eight months ago I commenced to use Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Plaster. I used two sets and I now feel like a new man. I am well and strong. I can say that I cannot find the equal. Mrs. Napoleon Deschamps, 111 South St., Boston, June 21, 1907.
